The bill meets my entire approval, and will, I hope, become a law. Very respectfully, Ii. M. TELLER, Secretary. Hon John T. Morgan, United States Senate. It is a well-known fact that the railroads in Alabama were not anxious for the pass ge of this bill, as they owned large bodie of these coal lands, having been granted alternate sections for fifteen miles on either side by the government of the United State is also a well-known fact that not an acre of these lands has ever been taken up under the set of 1873. Now, a word as to the in-terest taken by Senator Morgan to secure the passage of this bill. We will merely quote from his remarks to the Senate while five minu es on this bill, and then ask the

Mr. Morgan-I now ask the secretary to read a joint resolution of the Legislature of Alabama, which I send to the drsk. The Presiding Officer-The resolution will The acting secretary then read as follows

Alabama in the Congress of the Unite States are hereby requested to vote for, and procure, if possible, the passage of the act now pending to the Senate, providing for the President of the Sensie WILBER F. FOSTER. Speaker of the House of R presentatives I, Ellis Phelan, secretary of state, hereby certify that the large one is a true copy of the original joint resolution, in relation to mineral lands in Alabams, as the same is on

SEAL! ELLIS PHELAN, Secretary of State. Now, as to these lands being purchased by for generations. A visit to that section o country would disclose the fact that on own Sou hern people own by far the large ortion of these lands. You will find the ng to invest in Alabama enterprises. We find a company of Nashville capitalists hav purchased 50,000 acres. We find the Pratt Coal and Coke Company and the Birming-ham Coal, Coke and Iron Company, embrac ng about 83,000 acres of iron and coal land owned and managed by the following well-known citizens of Memphis: Jas. C. Neely. ontaine, Eaoch Ensley and Jas. H. Smith

We also find another Memphis company composed of Messes, C. C. Graham, T. J. La-tinam, L. B. McFarland, M. L. Mescham, B. M. Estes, H. T. Etlet, S. H. Dunscomb, and to the cause and those interested are re-quested to meet. fax, if any, section of country on the globs MEMPHIS, TENS. FAIR PLAY.
